OFFENSIVE TURNED INTO GENERAL ROUT AND PANIC

ITALIANS IN HOT PURSUIT. MANY GUNS AND QUANTITIES OF SUPPLIES CAPTURED.

(By the Associated Press)

Washington, June 24.—The capture of 45,000 prisoners and enormous stores of war material by the Italians in the counter offensive which has driven the Austrians across the Piave is announced in an official telegram to the Italian embassy. "The offensive by our troops began Sunday," says the dispatch. After the artillery had destroyed all bridges except one, the infantry drove forward. The flooded Piave contains thousands of enemy corpses. American airmen displayed great bravery in the first encounters.

Italians Begin Counter Drive.

Rome, June 24.—The Italians have crossed the old channel of the Piave river, recapturing several of their former positions, it is semi-officially announced. The Italians have thrown numerous bombing detachments across the main stream where the artillery is hammering the enemy.

Austrians Abandon Guns.

Italian Army Headquarters, (Sunday).—A great retreat by the Austrians along the Piave front began Saturday night under cover of darkness. Many cannon are being left behind and the Italians are pursuing the enemy east of the Piave.

AMERICANS IN BETTER POSITION

LOCAL ACTIONS IMPROVE LINES. THEODORE ROOSEVELT, JR. COMMENDED.

(By the Associated Press)

Washington, June 22.—Further improvement of American positions northwest of Chateau-Thierry was noted in Pershing's communication for yesterday received by the war department today. The repulse of an enemy raid in the Voges is also reported.

Major Roosevelt Cited.

American Army, France, June 24.—Major Theodore Roosevelt Jr., has been cited by the general commanding the troops to which his unit is attached for "conspicuous gallantry in action," during the capture and defense of Cantigny.

Casualty List.

Washington, June 24.—The army casualty list today contained sixty-two names as follows:
Killed in action 8
Died of wounds 4
Died of disease 2
Wounded severely 45
Wounded (degree undetermined) 3

BOARD WILL FIX COTTON PRICES

Washington, June 24.—As a forerunner to stabilization of the cotton industry by price-fixing, the price-fixing committee of the war industries board today was in conference with the war service commission of the National Council of American Cotton Manufacturers.

Prices were submitted on a few staple cloths, which were materially lower than the present market prices and the board asked for submission on July 1 of a schedule of prices on the complete list, as well as prices on cotton yarns, all on a parity with the prices suggested today.

Operative Program.

As a part of the program planned to be operative within a few days, the following stipulation was accepted, supplementary to provisions previously agreed to.

"All sales made after June 21 and before October 1, was on the basis of the prices to be approved by the price fixing committee to apply to sales before October 1—this regardless of the period during which delivery is to be made."

Prices will later be fixed to apply to sales made from October 1 to December 31, or for any other period which may appear desirable, the board announced.

Soon to Fix Prices.

A statement issued by the war industries board said in part: "The price-fixing committee recognizes the necessity for prompt stabilization and expects that it will soon fix prices, even in the absence of such cost data as would be desirable, and, accordingly, it announces that its action in this instance is not in accordance with the usual procedure and may not be expected to be the basis for further operations with this industry."

PREPARES FOR SAVING STAMP CAMPAIGN

The officers and faculty advisers of the eleven county organizations of East Central State Normal School, at a meeting held Friday afternoon, June 21, made definite plans for the war savings stamp campaign. These organizations have assumed the task of collecting the pledges of the entire student body and sending them to the home counties of the students. Duplicate copies will be kept on the files of the institution. The work will be completed at a mass meeting of students and teachers held at 3 p. m. on June 28. Professor E. E. Brinson is general manager of the war savings stamp work at the Normal school.

ITALIANS SAY IF ALLIES GIVE FULL AID AUSTRIAN DEFEAT MAY BE FINAL BLOW.

(By the Associated Press)

Washington, June 24.—Confidence at Rome that the war may be brought to a victorious close this year if the allies give the Italians full support in the offensive now being launched against the Austrians, is reflected in the official wireless dispatches received today from Italy. The dispatches say the Austrian retreat is a veritable rout, but information from secret sources shows many divisions of German troops are being detached from the French front and rushed to aid the Austrians.

LETTERS FROM SOLDIER BOYS

From Capt. Ed Crane.
The following is from a son of J. A. Crane of Ada written to his mother-in-law, Mrs. Buseman. Capt. Crane enlisted fifteen years ago and has worked his way up from the ranks:

Somewhere in France, Sunday, May 12, 1918.
Dear Mother:
This is Mother's Day and all officers and men of the army in France have been requested by General Pershing to write home to their mothers and as my mother has gone I have no other to write except you. I intended to drop you a few lines long before now, but I am kept so busy

During the period of the war, we will not sell an American Midget Roller Mill unless it is made in the United States, and we will not sell it to anyone who is not a citizen of the United States.

DO YOUR BIT. Help the Government by saving the freight on wheat and flour. Rollers the railroad of this unnecessary congestion by establishing in your community one of these wonderful American Midget Roller Mills.

And Make Money, Too
$150 to $1,000 per month can be made with this permanent, substantial and dignified business.

This wonderful self-contained roller mill is revolutionizing milling. Makes splendid flour at a better yield than the government requires. One man without previous milling experience can run it successfully. Small cost, small power, easy operation. Write to make a "Better Barrel of Flour Cheaper." You can make your flour under our nationally advertised brand "LEAVE."

Our Service Department inspects your product each month free and gives you up to $100 bonus for each barrel of flour sold. You can start with $100 to $1,000 to invest. Sold on 30 days' trial.

Write for our catalog and all over the United States. Anglo-American Mill Co. 637-543 Trust Bldg. Cincinnati, Mo.

that I hardly find time to write to Jim, although I manage to send her about two letters a week.

First of all, I must tell you that I am quite well, and have plenty to eat, and an excellent place to sleep, and am not in the front line trenches, but I am living in a very beautiful village and have practically all the comforts of home, so you see I am not so bad off after all, only I do get a little home sick at times when the mail is delayed, and I don't hear from Jim for several weeks.

I suppose Jim has already told you that I am director of the Base Training School for Stable Sergeants, Horseholders, Saddlers, Mechanics, Drivers and Packers of the first Army Corps. I am getting along splendidly considering that I have over 150 men under me and no other officer to help me out. It keeps me very busy, but as you know, I like to work, so am very well satisfied.

The only difficulty I find over here is that I cannot talk French, however, I am learning a little of it, and will soon be able to carry on a conversation just like a native. My time is so limited that I find it difficult to spend much time for study of the language.

I suppose that some of the boys have been drafted long before now and probably on their way over here. If Lewis has not already left, tell him that I am at A. P. O. No. 727 and that I would be glad to have him write me a few lines upon his arrival in France.

It has rained nearly every day since I have been here at this particular place, in fact, it has rained nearly every day since I have arrived in France, and of course we will all be glad when the wet season is over, for the more it rains the harder it is for the men at the front.

I don't believe that I have drank over two quarts of water since I have been in France. We get water with our meals, in between them and I suppose some people drink it during the night. I really never thought there was so much wine in the world as there is here in France alone. I suppose that when I return to the states, I will have a hard time to get along without my wine, so I advise you to have plenty in the cellar for me when I return, ha, ha!

Does Jim come to see you often, or do you go down to see her? I hope she is contented where she is at, and you must tell her not to worry as I am perfectly alright and safe and that I will come back to her equally as good as when I left her, only wiser.

Well, mother, I have told you all that I have to tell so must close and write a letter to my aunt in Los Angeles. I hope all of you are well and that you will write me a nice long letter soon. Give my love to all. With love, Ed.

Captain 119 FANG, Base Training School, 2nd District, 1st Corps, A.E.F., A.P.O. No. 727, France.

From James A. Starritt.
"March 15, 1918.—Dear Mamma and Papa: We are still in the big stone barracks. Am feeling fine. They run things over here something like an army. Haven't seen a single N.G. officer in the camp. I think that has something to do with it.

"There are a bunch of fellows here with a case hospital unit who used to be in my company at Camp Mills, N. Y. Two of the North Dakota fellows are down with tuberculosis. This is a wet climate and they are getting worse every day. It's too bad they couldn't get the benefit of some Imperial weather.

"We expect to get back to the company and go up to the front before long.

"I was downtown yesterday afternoon, and it was market day, and of all the circuses! I think all the freaks in the world were there. Some had ox-carts, some one-horse wagons, some two horses, hissed one in front of the other. One old gink had two oxen and a horse hitched abreast and another horse out in front.

"Then there were dog carts till you couldn't count them—one, two and three dogs to the cart. Some of these dogs are as big as a yearling bull. Nearly every wheelbarrow has one or two hooked on in front of it. One old woman had two kids and a dog in front of her wheelbarrow. The dog was the best worker. He would snap at the kids when they wouldn't pull. Another old woman and a dog were bringing in a steer, a goat and two geese. She had a rope on each of them and the dog kept them all moving.

"The streets in this town would make Chinatown ashamed of itself. Some of them are only four feet wide and they wind in and out, up hill and down, with walls on both sides. If there were a few Chinks around with pipes in their hands, I would swear I was in Chinatown.

"This mail proposition beats me. I can write all I want to, but I don't know whether you get them or not. I have never seen anyone get a letter from the States.

"They have all the postboxes numbered, but from the looks of things, I don't believe I will be in one place long enough for that to do me any good. Just keep on addressing them like the return and they will reach me in time, although I will probably get home before I get them.

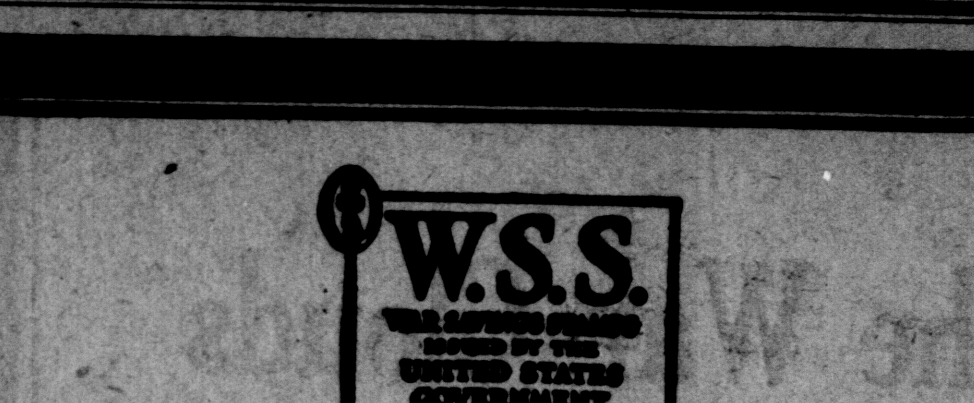

"The only thing wrong with this place is that the boys are so cheap that they are the only fruit we get. Must close. As ever, your loving son, JAMES A. STARRITT."

From Sam Scheinberg.
The News is in receipt of the following from Sam Scheinberg, formerly one of the proprietors of the Model who when he was unable to get into the department of his choice cheerfully took up another line:

Fort Washington, M. D., Co. 7, C. A. C., June 18, 1918.
Dear Friends:
Just a line to let you know of my whereabouts.

I tried every conceivable manner to make the aviation section but on account of over-enlistment in that particular branch the recruiting or induction was absolutely closed to me or anyone not a mechanic or similarly trained.

You can imagine my disappointment being turned from my fancy. But anyone loafing around Washington, D. C., nowadays, soon gets his "war fever" burning to a "don't-give-a-damn-and-will-join-an-anything" stage, especially during a Red Cross drive or some war ceremony. I certainly saw some wonderful meetings, heard great speakers while in Washington. Around that city a fellow don't pay any attention to the amount of time he wastes, especially to those society dames of Washington—anyway, I didn't.

midst of all the best known buildings in Washington, i. e.: The Capitol, Senate building, Congressional Library, etc. My business took me through this stretch of beautiful lawns, scenery and architecture each morning and most every afternoon. One particular afternoon I'll never forget. While gazing foolishly around like a "country merchant" I had no more sense than to halt right in the center of a magnificent driveway. When I came from under my trance I barely had time to get out of the way of a motorcycle and a line of automobiles following a big Pierce-Arrow car. After they had passed I heard one or two say "there he goes," "there goes the President!" I don't believe I would have minded

A Call to Every American

War Savings Stamps are a call to the thrift and patriotism of every American—a call that must be met by every man, woman and child who shares the blessings of this free country, if we are to carry on this war as a united people.

What They Are

War Savings Stamps are the most democratic form of government securities ever issued—a profitable, simple and secure investment backed by the entire resources of the government and people of the United States. They steadily increase in value from the date of purchase to the date of maturity—this increase is guaranteed by the government.

These stamps are issued in denominations of $5.00. Thrift Stamps 25 cents each.

The $5 War Savings Stamps

The $5 War Savings Stamp is a stamp for which the government will pay you $5 on January 1, 1923. Its cost to you if bought in February, 1918, is $4.13 (this cost increases one cent each month during 1918)—that is 4 per cent interest, compounded quarterly.

Simple, Secure

You don't have to figure interest, nor clip coupons, nor worry about the safety of your loan; the certificates are not transferable, and behind them are the wealth and taxing power of the richest country ever known. You can get your money back, on 10 days' notice, any time you need it.

being run over by such a celebrity. Would you?

I was sent from one department to another until I came to the coast artillery corps in charge of Major Clark. I was properly introduced to the Major, thanks to Mr. Norrell and the others who helped me. He gave me a dandy interview and was real fatherly to me. He showed me where he could induct me into this branch and if I showed up well, would have a chance at the officers training camp in October.

He had me inducted and on Decoration Day I became a soldier in the coast artillery corps at Fort Washington, Md. We are trained to handle the big guns and the anti-aircraft guns and heavy field pieces "over there." This is a high class branch of service and has attracted a fine class of men.

We are 15 miles from Washington, 7 miles from Mt. Vernon. We are on the beautiful Patomac river in the heart of one of the garden spots in the world and surely one of the most historical.

These grounds were first used by George Washington. To this day stands the big Fort Washington here not more than 100 yards from where I write. Also his headquarters, office and the place he lived while at war. The old fort is about a block long and but after the fashion you read about in Ivanhoe. Built high of heavy stone, brick and iron. Moats all around with the draw bridges to cross.

One day last week I spent an hour standing on one of the inner walls of the old fort eating big, black cherries out of the top of a tree growing by the fort. Almost as significant as the hatchet and cherry tree episode? It's strange, but these old barracks are being used to this very day by our soldiers.

Our quarters are strictly modern and in fact very pretty. The lawns, the parade grounds, the barracks, the officers' homes, the batteries each by themselves make a wonderful picture. It is very comfortable and pleasant to live here.

My duties are most anything from pitching hay, cut wood, wash, scrub, shine, guard and drill in infantry and artillery too. We also must know all about the signaling work; also to be a good artilleryman one should know mathematics, surveying, all about tides, deflections, ranges and astronomy, besides infantry work and more too.

I am constantly thinking about Ada and my friends and believe me, besides all things I have to do here, there is still one thing more and that is: miss my Ada friends and feel lonesome with no one but strangers near and in a strange country.

I address this letter to all the boys in the Ada News and through them I hope my best regards is spread to any other of my friends I happen to neglect on account of other duties. Hoping to hear from every one as all we live for now is "home tidings," I am,

Yours sincerely,
SAM SCHEINBERG.

AUTO DEALERS TO HELP W.S.S. ON JUNE 28

Muskogee, Okla., June 24.—Auto-dealers throughout Oklahoma are going to co-operate with the War Savings Committee on June 28th—National War Savings Day. E. R. (Dick) Carls, Director of the National War Savings Committee for this state sent out a letter to all automobile dealers asking them to assist in making the day a memorable one.

Auto dealers in every town and city have agreed to place one or more motor cars at the disposal of the Local War Savings Committee. These will be used for various purposes. In many places the plan is to have a point for registration which means the signing of the War Savings pledge. In the event that a person fails to respond a messenger will be sent and the motor cars will be utilized for this purpose.

In his letter to the dealers Mr. Carhart said:

"In addition to lending one or more of your own cars spread the news to private owners so that there will be a sufficient number in each locality to meet the requirements of the committee. We want to place Oklahoma in the front rank and you can help do it. We must not fail."

Judging from their records and style of talk in the past, we have some curiosity to know how the average socialist candidate is going to make a campaign speech without going to jail or meeting some other calamity.

The Konawa Chief-Leader has a new editor, Mrs. Mary Florence Brown succeeding Arthur Steed, who has enlisted in the army. This week's issue of the paper was bright and breezy, indicating that the paper is still in competent hands. It is more than probable that many more papers of Oklahoma will be edited by women before the war is much older.

Buying war stamps and liberty bonds is an investment but every dollar the Huns could get their hands on would be confiscated if they should win the victory and name the terms of peace. No argument is needed to convince the average citizen that every possible effort must be put forth without delay if the war is to be brought to a close during the lifetime of the present generation.

To All County Officials and the Public.
State of Oklahoma,
County of Pontotoc.

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Laws of the State of Oklahoma, and at the request of the Hon. R. L. Williams, Governor of the State of Oklahoma, I hereby declare that Friday, June 28, 1918, shall be a holiday, and request that all County Offices be closed from the hour of 1:00 o'clock P. M. until the hour of 5:00 o'clock P. M., of that day.

It is also requested that all County Officials lend their aid, actively, to the promotion of the WAR SAVING STAMP CAMPAIGN, during these hours.

In testimony whereof, witness my hand and official seal, this the 24th day of June, 1918.

(Seal) I. R. GILMORE,
Chairman the Board of County Commissioners.
Attest: MILTON GARNER, County Clerk.

Tired all Time, Did Not Want to Work, How He Regained Strength.

Sanford, Maine.—"I suffered so much from a run-down, nervous condition and stomach trouble that I never felt like working and had tried almost everything without relief. The first bottle of Vinol however helped me and it has built me up so I feel better now than I have for a long time." Chester D. Haines.
There is no secret about Vinol. It owes its success to best and cod liver capsules, iron and manganese phosphate, and glycerophosphate. The oldest and most famous body building and strength creating tonic. Owen & Mayo Company and Druggists Everywhere.

America the Crucible of Liberty

Turn YOUR Loose Change Into BULLETS

—from a Red Blooded Patriotic Standpoint

No doubt you have already given and given generously for your means. But have you suffered any by giving? Surely you intend to give—give—give until it hurts. You won't let yourself be classed with the spineless, yellow-livered slackers who peevishly whimper: "Let those who can afford it do the rest of the giving, I've done my part," or "Some of my folks are in the service, I think that's enough for me."

Wouldn't that be a fine spirit for Our Boys to show, when their captain shouted, "Over the top with the best o' luck and give 'em hell?" Every time you feel like tightening your purse strings when money for a war need is asked, just stop and think how little your sacrifice is, compared to the one your Sammies are making. Money is nothing compared to a leg, or an arm, or eyesight, or a disfigured face—or a LIFE! God—to think there are some animals who call themselves 'Americans that actually refuse to give "because others can afford it better than they!"

Giving when you can afford it doesn't count. It is giving at the cost of some pleasure, something you don't actually need, that is red-blooded Americanism. That's the kind of stuff the patriots of '76 were made of. That's the kind of stuff you and I have in us. Give—give—give until it hurts.

—from a Cold Blooded Dollars and Cents Standpoint

Just think if you had started saving a quarter a day five years ago—you would have $455.25 plus the interest today! "If you had only started"—there is the story in a nutshell. You thought "It's too little to bother about," so now you are no further along financially than you were five years ago.

The time is ripe. START NOW! You can save a quarter a day—help your Mother Country—and place the money, in the safest, most profitable kind of an investment—government "baby" bonds, paying 4% interest compounded quarterly. Here's how: There's a close-by place that sells Thrift Stamps and War Savings Stamps. Get the Thrift Stamp habit—buy one every day. They cost only 25c; $4.00 worth fills a folder. This and 18c buys a $5.00 War Savings Stamp during February, 1918. It's value and cost goes up 1 cent each month.

The War Savings Stamps are cashable at REGULAR PRICE any time! Little tots are doing odd jobs to earn quarters in order to fill their Stamp folders. Women are raising chickens, selling their preserves, finding all sorts of ways to cash in on their spare time and fill their Stamp folders. Men stop merely frittering away their nickels and dimes and start filling their Stamp folders instead.

See how much spare change you can turn into bullets. START NOW!

Eddie was visiting in the country, and some older children, thinking to entertain him, put him on the back of a small pony called Billy. The pony started off at a good pace around the lot, frightening the little visitor, who wasn't used to riding. Holding tight as he could to the pony, he shrieked out to the older ones: "Oh, come quick and help me let loose to Billy!"

STEREOPTICAN LECTURES AT NORMAL TOMORROW

"On June 25 and 26 two moving picture reels and a few stereopticon slides will be shown, besides a lecture on health conditions and our war duty, on the State Normal lawn at nine o'clock in the evening. These pictures and talks will be under the direction of Miss Ida Spaeth, Field Secretary and Joseph Fishman, Educational Secretary, of the Oklahoma Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis. Miss Spaeth and Mr. Fishman have been engaged in anti-tuberculosis work in several of the Northern States and have been recently spending their time presenting their experiences to the students in summer session at all the State Normal Schools.

The government is supporting this work in making special efforts to present health conditions as they exist in Oklahoma. They will present methods for caring for the tuberculosis soldiers that are coming back to this country even at the present time.

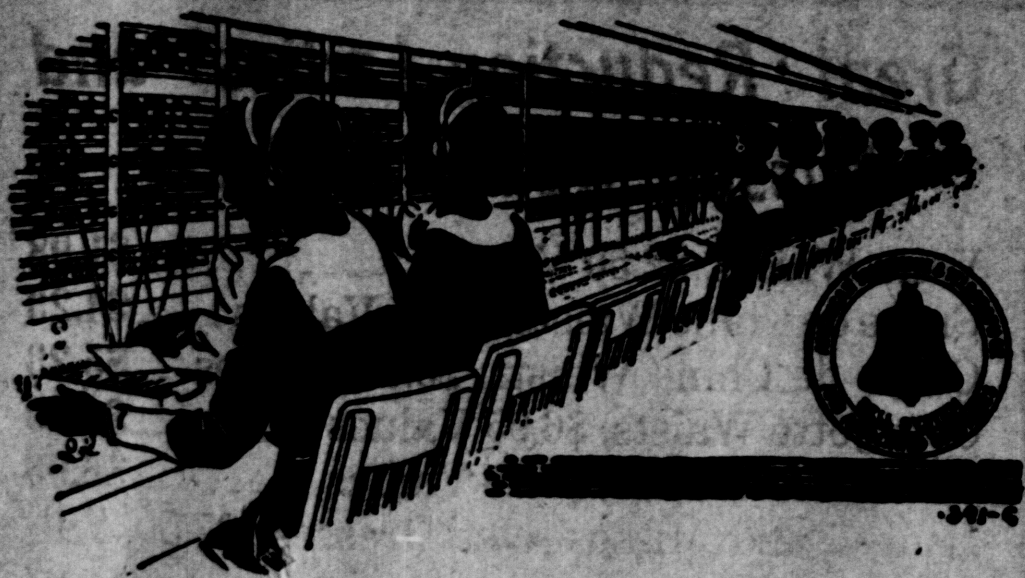

Many physicians have been called away to France and it is therefore, very necessary that everyone realize the importance of this work. Simple health facts will be presented by Mr. Fishman at this time.
The lecturers will be glad to answer any questions on the prevention of disease and will present literature to anyone who might be interested. The Oklahoma Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis is quite ready to do this work without charge as funds have already been provided to carry on this work. These moving pictures and talks are entirely free, and it is expected that a large audience will be present, upon the Campus Lawn.

War-time Operating

In the present extraordinary situation there is one feature of Bell Telephone traffic operation that is brought to particular public notice.

Calls for numbers that have been disconnected, for party-line numbers that have been changed, and certain other local calls that cannot be completed by the first answering operator, are referred to what are known as "Special Operators."

The latter are provided with ample records making possible the establishment of desired connections with the least possible delay; and it is urged that the public co-operate with them, evidencing consideration and patience when factors outside the control of the answering operator necessitate the referring of calls to a Special Operator.

MAYOR'S WAR SAVINGS STAMP PROCLAMATION

Whereas, June 28th, 1918, has been appointed by the President of the United States as War Savings day, and has requested the people to assemble at designated places on said day at two o'clock P. M. and there pledge to him such sum or sums of money as they will loan to the government between said date and the 31st day of December, 1918.

Now, Therefore, I, W. E. Conger, Mayor of the City of Ada, do hereby proclaim all that part of the 28th day of June, 1918, beginning at one o'clock P. M., and ending at five o'clock P. M., as a legal holiday, and do call upon all the citizens of the City of Ada patriotically to close their places of business and lay aside all work and labor, and attend the places to be designated for them, and there make and pledge to the President the amount of money they will loan to the government to be paid on and after said date as provided in said call.

In Witness Whereof I have hereunto set my hand on this the 19th day of June, 1918.

W. E. CONGER,
Mayor of the City of Ada, Oklahoma.

Notice Registrants.
All young men called to army service should have their teeth examined and needed repairs done before leaving for camp. All dentists of Ada do this service free.—Dr. F. R. Laird, Chairman of Dental Preparedness League.

Line the War-Clouds With Your Silver

LAST April the war-cloud left the horizon and spread over our entire sky.

Its silver lining consists solely of the resources of America in men and money.

For these alone can bring a victorious, swift end to the war.

To keep that silver lining bright and evident, all of us who stay at home must do certain simple and very necessary things.

First of all we must save—not only large amounts with which to buy Liberty Bonds, but small coins to buy Thrift Stamps and War Savings Stamps.

These small savings are really as important as the larger ones.

Through them the government expects us to lend the country two billion dollars—eight billion quarters.

Every quarter you save by doing without unnecessary luxuries buys a Thrift Stamp.

When you get sixteen of these Thrift Stamps turn them in at any post office, bank or regular appointed agent and you will get one War Savings Stamp.

This savings stamp is the government's promise to pay you, at the end of five years, one five-dollar gold piece.

These $5.00 War Savings Stamps are exchangeable for cash any time between now and January 1, 1923, upon giving ten days' written notice to any money order post office. You get the cost price plus accumulated interest.

By buying them you make available money that now has no effect in hastening victory—and swift victory is the silver lining of the war-cloud over us.

Begin buying them now—and keep on buying.

Your post office money order station, or your bank, can sell them to you and tell you everything you want to know about them.

Well Adapted for Its Work.
Speaking of hicks, could you imagine one better suited to the habits of its owner than that of the hog? The hog roots in the ground for its food—in the wild state. Its neck must be thick and stout for shoving the snout into the earth. So the neck of the hog is built stoutly as it should be built for pushing the snout to carry its most valued treasure in picking up or rooting up its food supply.

Health Comes First.
The human body is kept in health by simple living, which after all is a test of fitness for success. Without health there can be no success, for gain of fame or gold will not profit a man who batters away his health. The wealth of the world some day will be judged by the health and happiness of mankind.—Elmer Lee, M. D., in Health Culture.

Cultivate Contentment.
The happy state of mind so rarely possessed, in which we can say, "I have enough," is the highest attainment of philosophy. Happiness consists not in possessing much, but in being content with what we possess. He who wants little always has enough.—Elmer Lee.

A War Savings Stamp is just as good as a safe security as land. Why? Because its title rests in the government. Remember June 28th.
